Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

- 1) ☒ Responsive to communication(s) filed on 27 September 2005.
- 2a) ☐ This action is FINAL. 2b) ☒ This action is non-final.
- 3) ☐ Since this application is in condition for allowance except for formal matters, prosecution as to the merits is closed in accordance with the practice under Ex parte Quayle, 1935 C.D. 11, 453 O.G. 213.

Disposition of Claims

DETAILED ACTION

In view of the BPAI comments on February 21, 2007, the final office action dated on January 25, 2005 is withdrawn. A new action on the merits is as follows.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

1. Claims 1, 3-10, 25-35 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention. On page 5, lines 11-19, the Specification explains the advantage of the limitations recited in claims 1, 32, and 34 as follows:

In an embodiment of the reactor according to the invention, advantageously the lateral boundary areas can be designed as jacket pieces, which form a pressure-resistant cuboid block with channels formed by the plates and collectors for the process fluid and for the heat transfer medium. An advantage of this embodiment is that the reactor can be operated, both on the process fluid side and on the heat transfer medium side, at operating pressures of more than 25 bar.

However, the Specification does not state how the jacket pieces, plates, and collectors are bonded together to form a pressure-resistant cuboid block capable of operating at a pressure of more than 25 bars. See the Specification in its entirety. Nor does the Specification define the meaning of "cuboid block". Id.

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 1, 3-10, 25-35 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. In claims 1, 32, and 34, the recitation of "lateral boundary areas are jacket pieces, which form a pressure-resistant cuboid block with said channels, plates, and with collectors for the process fluid and for the heat transfer medium, and said reactor is capable of operating at process fluid and heat transfer medium pressures of more than 25 bar " in indefinite and inaccurate.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1, 3-10, and 25-35 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
